

Profili Borsisti 2010

Giuseppe Cama - Graduated in Biomedical Engineering from the University of Genoa. He is currently working on a project at King's College London Guys Hospital, developing novel biomedical materials that can be used on bone grafts for clinical application. He is working under Dr Lucy Di Silvio's supervision.

Ambrigo Camozzi - Graduated in Italian Philology from the University of Milan. He is currently working towards an MPhil in European Literature and Culture at Cambridge University. The title of his thesis is 'Dante and the Tradition of Alexander the Great'.

Carly Collier - Graduated in History, she is currently a 1st year PhD student in History of Art at Warwick University. She is working on a thesis; 'The re-evaluation of Medieval and Early Renaissance Italian Art in British taste in the 18th Century'.

Danilo Faccenda - Graduate in Molecular Biology from the University of Bologna. He is researching at the Royal Veterinary College under the supervision of Dr Michelangelo Campanella. His work is devoted to defining novel intercellular targets for therapeutic treatment of metabolic diseases.

Lucy Goddard - Graduated in Modern and Medieval Italian and French from Cambridge University. Mezzo Soprano, studying for an MA in Vocal Performances at the Royal Academy of Music. She is going to attend a summer school on Italian Opera in Montaretto, Liguria.

Roberto Carlos Gomez Ortiz - Graduated from Escuela Superior de Musica from Mexico City. Currently an MA student at the Royal Academy of Music, specialising in Italian repertoire.

Irene Maffini - Graduated in Business Economics from Università Cattolica in Milan. After an MA in International Management, she is now studying for an MSc in Environmental Technology, specialising in Pollution Management at Imperial College London.

Daniele Miano - Graduated in History of Religion from La Sapienza, Rome. He is a first year PhD student in Classics and Ancient History at Manchester University working on a thesis on 'The Cult of Virtues in archaic and mid-republican Rome'.

Ella Molineaux - Finally year Undergraduate student in Experimental Psychology at Oxford University. She is taking part in an 8 week programme on the longitudinal study of attention in young boys with Fragile X Syndrome, under the supervision of Dr Gaia Scerif and Dr Elena Longi.

Gerwyn Owen - Second year PhD student in Film and Media studies at Bangor University researching on images of Jews, Jewishness and Judaism in Italian films 1910-2010. He is particularly interested in the Cinegiornali of Istituto Luce – Rome and films made during the fascist period (1922-1943).

Samuel Charles Pegg - Graduated in Music from King's College London. He will start a PhD course in Composition for Screen at the Royal College of Music. Specialising on Nino Rota's scores and his work with Fellini and Antonioni. Samuel is also using Rota's music as an inspiration to his own compositional work.

Rocky Strollo - Graduate in Medicine from Università campus Bio-Medico. He is studying for a PhD in Endocrinology and Metabolic Diseases, involving the University Campus Bio-Medico in Rome and Queen Mary University of London. His research project focuses on a new field that links diabetes and Osteoporosis

Giorgia Tottonelli - Pediatric Surgeon from La Sapienza, Rome, and Research Fellow in Pediatric Surgery at University College London, Institute of Child Health, Great Ormond Street Hospital. She is researching on tissue engineering of the Intestine for gastrointestinal pathologies.

NATUZZI

Sue Bar - Architect, currently studying at the Royal College of Arts for an MPhil in Architecture with a project on the Architecture of Transit. She is concentrating on Motorways in Genoa (A7 and A12) and how they respond to the city's urban context and mountainous landscape.

Catriona Coen - Third year undergraduate student at University College London studying Italian Design. She is currently attending a year long course in design and interior architecture at Politecnico in Milan.